CHESTER SAVAGE

His Examining Trial Set For Next Tuesday Morning

There are no new developments in the murder of William Savage.

The stoical silence maintained by Chester Savage, the young lad under arrest, leaves the public to arrive at its own conclusions in regard to the matter.

That the accused is wise beyond his years is shown by his discretion and knowledge of human affairs.

In an interview yesterday he was asked—"Did you hurt your toe while in the field?"

"No, sir," was the reply.

"Didn't you go to the house for the purpose of having your toe bandaged?"

"No, sir," was the response.

The question was again repeated in a sharp tone, when the father interjected, "It was your foot, son."

"Yes, sir," promptly came the reply, as he designated the spot on the injured part.

He submitted to being photographed without the least objection.

He was brought before Judge C. D. Newell yesterday afternoon and his examining trial set for next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

He was represented by Judge John L. Whitaker.

AMUSING WITNESS

Wanted His Fee Before He Would Testify in Court

There was a litigation yesterday afternoon in Squire Boyer's Court between Samuel Middleton, the junk merchant, and J. H. Hamilton, the coal dealer.

The suit was over the ownership of a cart, in which the former won out, being given a writ of delivery for the property and $25 as damages.

The usual monotony of a trial in a Squire's Court is sometimes broken by the antics and answers of unsophisticated witnesses, and at yesterday's matinee a quaint and well known character was the medium in causing a smile from the Bench and lawyers in the case and a titter from the audience.

The first thing he did when his name was called and before he would proceed with his testimony was to demand his attendance fee of 50 cents.

There being no money in the Court's exchequer for the payment of such claims, the Judge was about to excuse the witness when the latter remarked—

"Well, as I am here I might as well testify. I can charge it to the Captain's account."

The Captain, however, tendered the money later on, but the gentleman refused to accept it.

He was only "kidding."

Allan Gillaspie of Dover and Miss Teledith Bartley of Ripley were married at Dover a few days ago.

Additional graft charges against the officials of the State Penitentiary were brought Tuesday by a Frankfort newspaper, which says that a convict lends money to his fellow inmates at an exorbitant rate of interest and that he has a large sum of money always on hand.

A mild sensation was caused in the Methodist Conference at Winchester last Friday over a discussion of horse trading on the part of Rev. W. A. Penn. Rev. Penn is said to be a shrewd trader in horse flesh, and because some of his brethren got the worst of a bargain with him in a deal, he was criticised in Conference.

Four days later and the Feast of the Tabernacle will begin. This feast lasts for eight days and commemorates the time when the Jews were in the wilderness before they came to Palestine. As a rule, the Jews partake of their food during these days in rude shacks instead of their homes because the wanderers were homeless and had to eat in huts.

TALK about brave men! What of W. R. CHANDLER of Bowling Green, who has just married his sixth wife?

WHEN persons are employed and paid by the day or the week or the month, as a rule they're not so awfully particular as to how long the job lasts.

THE late General DMITRI FRODOVICH TREPOFF, the Czar's Boss of the Imperial Slop-jars and Palace, died of plain neuralgia of the heart; but for fear that we common people wouldn't know just what took him off, the learned asses called it "angina pectoris."

THE usually correct special correspondent of The Courier-Journal, writing from Washington, says—

"If we are going to have another war about Cuba the Democratic Congressional Committee may as well close up the shop."

Which is only another form of announcing in advance the utter hopelessness of the Democratic Congressional campaign—preparing a soft spot to fall on, as it were. There's just about as much likelihood of Uncle Sam having another war about Cuba, as there is of BILLY BRYAN furnishing the $14,000,000,000 to buy the railroads.

THERE's just as much reason now for the existence of two Methodist organizations in this country—"North" and "South"—as there is for a cow-catcher on the tail end of a water-wagon.

It pays to be honest. Proof: A woman. A cigar box. It contained $20,000. It was in her lap. She was in the Depot of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad. She heard the whistle blow. She got up started for the train. Of course—did a woman ever do otherwise?—the box rolled out of her lap and dropped on the floor. After awhile she missed it. Back to the waiting-room. Big howl. Frantic gyrations. Hysterics. WILLIAM FENLON, a poor employe. He had found the box and put it safely away. "What was it, madam?" "Why, $20,000!" "It's yours, madam." Without even saying thankye, she grabbed it and again lit out for the train. Two days later WILLIAM received an anonymous note inclosing a $5 bill. And now he's ready to join the great moral army that declares "It pays to be honest"—though the pay is sometimes devilish small.

A SAD ENDING.

Harper's Weekly.

A young clerk grown up in the employ of a prosperous German grocer was, by reason of his ability and knowledge of all details, virtually intrusted with the management of the business, and, although given frequent advances of salary, began to feel that his services were absolutely indispensable and not properly appreciated from a money point of view. He laid the matter before his employer, placing particular stress on what a difficult matter it would be to operate the business without him. This claim was admitted by the employer, who inquired further—

"But, Chon, vat if you should die?"

"Oh, then, you would have to get along without me," remarked John.

After a few minutes deep thought the employer looked up at John and said—

"Vell, Chon, chust gonsider yourself deat."

CUBAN AFFAIRS

President Roosevelt's Letter Stating This Government's Position

Below is President Roosevelt's letter to the Cuban Minister, defining the position of the United States in regard to Cuba—

OSTEY BAY, N. Y., September 14th.

My Dear Senor Quesada: In this crisis in the affairs of the Republic of Cuba, I write you not merely because you are the Minister of Cuba, accredited to this Government, but because you and I were intimately drawn together at the time when the United States intervened in the affairs of Cuba, with the result of making her an independent Nation. You know how sincere my affection and admiration and regard for Cuba are. You know that I have never done and never shall do anything in reference to Cuba save with such sincere regard for her welfare. You also know the pride I felt because it came to me as President to withdraw the American troops from the island Cuba and to officially proclaim her independence and to wish her Godspeed in her career as a free Republic.

A SOLEMN WARNING.

I desire now through you to say a word of solemn warning to your people, whose earnest well wisher I am. For seven years Cuba has been in a condition of profound peace and of steadily growing prosperity. For four years this peace and prosperity have obtained under her own independent Government. Her peace, prosperity and independence are now menaced, for of all possible evils that can befall Cuba, the worst is the evil of anarchy into which civil war and revolutionary disturbances will assuredly throw her. Whoever is responsible for armed revolution and outrage, whoever is responsible in any way for the condition that now obtains, is an enemy of Cuba and doubly heavy the responsibility of the man who, affecting to be the special champion of Cuban independence, takes any steps which will jeopardize that independence. For there is just one way in which Cuban independence can be secured, and that is for the Cuban people to show their ability to continue in their path of peaceful and orderly progress.

This Nation asks nothing of Cuba save that it shall continue to develop as it has developed during the past seven years; that it shall know and practice the orderly liberty which will assuredly bring an ever increasing measure of peace and prosperity to the beautiful Queen of the Antilles. Our intervention in Cuban affairs will only come if Cuba herself shows that she has fallen into the insurrectionary habit; that she lacks the self-restraint necessary to peaceful self-government and that her contending factions have plunged the country into anarchy.

ADVICE TO CUBANS.

I solemnly adjure all Cuban patriots to band together, to sink all differences and personal ambitions and to remember that the only way that they can preserve the independence of the republic is to prevent the necessity of outside interference by rescuing it from the anarchy of civil war. I earnestly hope that this word of adjuration of mine, given in the name of the American people, the staunchest friends and well wishers of Cuba that there are in all the world, will be taken as it is meant, will be seriously considered and will be acted upon, and if so acted upon, Cuba's permanent independence, her permanent success as a Republic, are assured.

Under the treaty with your Government, I, as President of the United States, have a duty in this matter which I cannot shirk. The third article of that treaty implicitly confers upon the United States the right to intervene for the maintenance in Cuba of a government adequate for the protection of life, property and individual liberty. The treaty concerning this right is the supreme law of the land and furnishes me with the right and the means of fulfilling the obligation that I am under to protect American interests.

PACIFICATION IMPERATIVE.

The information at hand shows that the social bonds throughout the island have been so relaxed that life, property and individual liberty are no longer safe. I have received authentic information of injury to and destruction of American property. It is in my judgment imperative for the sake of Cuba that there shall be an immediate cessation of hostilities and some arrangement which will secure the permanent pacification of the island.

I am sending to Havana the Secretary of War, Mr. Taft, and the Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. Bacon, as the special representatives of the Government, who will render such aid as is possible toward these ends. I had hoped that Mr. Root, the Secretary of State, could have stopped in Havana on his return from South America, but the seeming imminence of the crisis forbids further delays.

Through you I desire in this way to communicate with the Cuban Government and with the Cuban people, and accordingly I am sending you a copy of this letter to be presented to President Palma, and have also directed its immediate publication. Sincerely yours,

THEODORE ROOSEVELT. Senor Don Gonzales de Quesada, the Cuban Minister.

A GOOD MEETING

Was the Sunday-School Convention in This City Yesterday

The Annual Convention of the Mason County Branch of the Kentucky Sunday-school Association convened yesterday in this city in the Central Presbyterian Church.

The program, with but one exception, was carried out as announced.

Mr. Vaughan, one of the most interesting of the State Field Workers, gave an instructive talk on "The Sunday-school Work in Kentucky," and among the other speakers of the day were Rev. W. W. Akers, Rev. George H. Harris, Messrs. John I. Winter, John Duley, George H. Frank and Misses Mary Wilson and Mary Neal, all of whom gave most helpful and encouraging talks.

The music was quite a feature, the vocal selections being most enjoyable.

The Interstate Commerce Commissioners have rendered a most important decision in the matter of applications from various railroads giving administrative construction to certain provisions of the new Railroad Rate Laws. Briefly, they hold that with regard to payments for transportation, nothing but money can be legally received. With regard to notices of changes in rates, the joint rate between two or more connecting carriers is held to be the legal rate, and any change requires thirty days notice. With regard to round-trip excursion rates the Commission makes three rulings, the most important being that these may be changed at one day's notice.
